

NEXT MEETING  COME!

 April 21st  8:00 P.M.  Arnolds Hofbrau Restaurant ***

This is our Annual meeting. As reported in TOOT 66-3, the Nomination Committee has suggested a slate for your consideration. Nominations from the floor are proper. Please come and participate in the administration of your club by voting.

We have two membership applications to vote on: Jack Fox and Bill Goodell. Please introduce yourself to these applicants and be prepared to vote.

The PVS bus trip. The most successful trip ever run by PVS! We were in New York before we realized it (beer, cheese, cold cuts, and conviviality made the trip a good one). Seventeen members and seven wonderful guests made the trip possible (although trip leader Stecher really sweated this one out up to the very last minute). At midnight March 25th, we finally settled down to nap. A vibrant reverse gear didn't help when we got lost sometime in the early A.M. and our fine driver George had to back up. A 5:15 A.M. arrival at the Worthy (??) Inn in Manchester, Vt. permitted three hours sleep before a good breakfast. We arrived at Stratton at 9:30 and set forth to a great day of skiing on "New England hardpack." Fortunately, four inches of snow fell Saturday night and Sunday skiing was a genuine pleasure. Just ask the twenty-one members and guests who took the Uniform Basic Test. Somehow, only 20 and 3/4 persons passed, out of a possible 21. Well, when you have judges like Bill Stecher, Gini Dillon, and Dick King, who can expect perfection? In addition to our collective PVS skiing abilities shown on this weekend, another PVS talent manifested itself to the honor of PVS. At the weekly Tyrolean night held on Saturdays by the instructors at Stratton, PVSer Bill Jarrett was coerced in the name of the club to display his yodeling talent. He easily matched the Austrian he joined and proceeded to win the crowd's applause. Sunday night, a happy bunch returned to the tropic of Washington, D.C. and the routine of daily living. BUT, we have the memories of a wonderful PVS trip to live over and over again.

We are considering a Tuckerman's Ravine trip in May. We must have advance deposits to plan this one. Tuckerman's is a Mecca (everyone should make the trip once) for eastern skiers. Those interested please give their names and firm intentions to Larry Pease.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Sailing. Russ Kinaman and his lovely wife Lilo are enthusiasts and would like to get together with other PVSers who might share this interest. Please see Russ who has details and information.

Tennis. Please see Dick King or Byron Gutheil. Perhaps we can organize some activity; perhaps even an organized competition.

DON'T FORGET, we will meet throughout the summer but on the THIRD WEDNESDAY of each month.
