WASHINGTON MARYLAND VIRGINIA

JULY, 1992

President's

LAW BREAKING AMONG MUSIC LOVERS, a timely message ...

Message: "The law is the last result of human wisdom acting upon human experience for the benefit of the public." ...SAMUEL JOHNSON. A noble philosophy, perhaps, but debatable at best.

Now that summer has officially arrived many PVSers will be travelling around this great country of ours. Therefore, I have been reading up on statutes on the books of towns and cities across the United States and Canada that have long outlived their reason for being, whatever it might have been. Obviously, many of these ludicrous laws -which forbid all kinds of harmless activities in and around the concert hall- were designed to protect our ladies from the provocative effects of music. Therefore, as a service to the club, I feel obligated to relate a few of these outdated but still enforceable laws so that we will all return in the fall without a police record, especially our fair "maidens."

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA....Women who are single, widowed or divorced are banned from playing the guitar on Sunday. PITTSBURG, PENNA....It is illegal to tickle a girl under the chin with a feather duster to get her attention. CHARLESTON, S.C....Every woman going to a concert must be found wearing a corset. Physician is required to inspect such females. REGINA, SASKATCHEWAN...It is illegal for a woman weighing more than 200 pounds to play a banjo while wearing shorts. And, finally (as space gives out) in BATON ROUGE, LA... It is illegal for anyone riding an ugly horse to play a fiddle in a public park. So take heed, my dear friends, and obey the laws.

HAVE A GREAT, FUN-FILLED SILLY SUMMER!

Bill

SPECIAL NOTES

AASE BERLING is recuperating nicely from major surgery and would love to hear from PVS friends. See roster for Hilton Head, S.C. address.

DOT MASON writes "Your cards, notes and attendance at the memorial service for Jenckes were of tremendous help to me during a rough time. Jenckes really loved PVS - the ski trips, the social affairs and the hikes we led. (Note to Ray McKinley: No, I'm not ready to lead a hike myself!)

THE KNEE

by

Ray McKinley

July, and skiing is far from our thoughts.

Au contraire. It's the equivalent of January in the Southern Hemisphere. Resorts in New Zealand, Argentina and Chile are just beginning high season. The Flakes, Kirk Burns, Charlie Farwell, and Sally Finan, to name a few, have all skied in the South. Perhaps a PVS trip?

At Betty Lawrence's great Great Falls meeting, it was a pleasure, after a long absence, to see Sally Finan. (She's recently back from an archeological dig in Arizona.) And also, (after several years living near San Francisco), Jim Slack and Mary Ward.

Jim and Mary and their cat had a minor flap with United Airlines returning. Their cat had been promised in-cabin passage; however, it became "catona non grata" on the DC-10. All three finally arrived, albeit a bit late. Apparently the DC in DC-10 means Deny Cats.

A note from PVS German contingent Bill and Elke Stecher belies other information that European skiing must be expensive. They spent the second week of last winter's Olympics in a rental, slopeside apartment in Val d'Isere. They had 7 day lift passes, tickets to three events and transportation from their home near Frankfurt for about $310 each. Kneet.

Nearby, Charlotte Eddy's daughter and spouse, also German residents, have recently purchased a ski house in Schlechen, Germany, near the Austrian border and Kitzbühel. Wunderbar!

Have you noticed a new look to the Knee in the last few months? I've been computerized. After I put my mighty pen to paper, Nancy Sexton feeds it into the word processor. The processor masticates it a bit and spits out two Kneet columns. (The Knee did not get a reasonable answer to his query "How many words can it process?")

A built-in spell check prevents speling mistakes. The spell check does have a bit of a minor problem with unusual words like names and, of course, Knee puns. Kneepuns, of course, are Japaknees.

Ned Flaherty and Karen Felker have both recently had knee surgery. (No, as I've noted previously, that is not the removal of this column from TOOT.) At the June meeting both were inquiring as to the long term outlook for skiing after surgery. It's good. However, EXCOMer Bob McNeill will have to ski a bit more carefully. He lost his anterior cruciate ligament. Surgery was not recommended.

At the June meeting, Pres. Bill Anderson asked Membership Chair Marilyn Clark "What is the state of our membership?" Marilyn's one-word answer "Wonderful." And the Knee thought it was "Virginia."

More bad news on my namesake country Boskneeia. Terry Morton had been doing architectural reconstruction in Sarajevo and had been there 5 times in the last two years. All now lost.

~~Ian Phillips is recently back from a week on the Nile. That's better, Tut-Tut, than the other option. And Dorothy Mills just back from her 50th college reunion. Right on.~~

Dean Worcester recalls that, some 50 years ago, a skiing accident occurred when he was learning to ski. He skied into the side of a church and broke his arm. Dean hasn't been into a church since.

Irene Farrell has an ambitious plan. She's trying to read all Pulitzer Prize winners for the past ten years. Clearly due to an oversight, the Knee has never even been nominated.

Dutch Mueller is retiring as president of Fagowees. He was president longer than Franklin Roosevelt. Much longer; FDR was never even in Fagowees.

PVS will have a trip to Ski-O-Ree this winter. It's moved to Blue Knob for the first time this year. PVS's own Bill Anderson and Eloise Newdorp started the event in 1972 at Canaan Valley.

John Smith reports seeing a T-shirt in Annapolis which read "An old skier is one who remembers when skiing was dangerous and sex wasn't."

PAST EVENT

ALOHA, HAWAII !

by Dot Mills

Silk leis, palm trees, flaming torches, Volcano in Paradise rum punch, and super hosts Janet and Chris Wain, greeted 26 PVSers to the second annual luau on May 30 - Janet with multicolored leis and Chris with camera ready to picture our arrival by a palm tree. And that was only the beginning!

After the cocktail hour - Volcano in Paradise rum punch and Virgin Paradise punch, accompanied by Hawaiian pu-pus -- bacon-wrapped dates, teriyaki beef sticks, coconut curried shrimp, leek dip, pineapple cream cheese dip, and fruit tray, we adjourned to a delectable feast of oven Kalua pork, skewered apricot chicken, rice, King's Hawaiian rolls, and Mandarin almond salad in honey vinaigrette and lami lami (ask Janet!). And for dessert luscious Honolulu cream cake (pineapple and coconut) festively decorated with oriental parasols, and royal Kono blend coffee. Janet spent a couple of months testing her recipes on Chris' office. She says they're glad it's over - more likely they're sorry to be taste testers no longer and are waiting impatiently for the next party! And Chris is happy not to be skewering chicken and beef for a while!

Hawaii was all around us - palm trees, Hawaiian scenery, Hawaiian music, spectacular video tapes of Hawaii, and island-inspired party attire. We were there!! Flaming torches beckoned us invitingly to the garden -- unfortunately our visits were short because the rain wouldn't cooperate. But our hosts overcame the weather! There were hula dance and hula hoop demonstrations/competitions (?) which most of us failed sadly though we had loads of fun trying. Janet demonstrated and encouraged (and surpassed us all). And puka door prizes -- pineapples, coconuts, tropical fish cocktail napkins, flower bracelets, scented candles, spring flower seeds. And, as always, great conversation among friends.

Then, sadly, we all sailed back to the mainland. A very special evening -- wish you were there. Many, many thanks, Janet and Chris. We're looking forward to when you do it again!

LAST MEETING OF THE YEAR

On June 16, Betty Lawrence once again opened her beautiful home at Great Falls to host the last meeting of the year. The crowd of 70/80 (uncertain because few could find the sign-up sheet) arrived just as the effervescent hostess was putting finishing touches on bountiful platters of fruits, cheeses, dips and cold cuts. The usual convivial air was quickly evident as guests circulated about the spacious veranda overlooking the pool and gardens.

They snacked and sipped and greeted old friends and new. Among the former: Mary Ward and Jim Slack, just returned from California; Dean Worcester, up from Annapolis; Jan Phillips nicely recovered from blood clot surgery; the Flakes, off on a quickie 5-day trip to Paris; seldom-seen Sally Finan, and Rosemary Soler.

Bill Anderson presided over the meeting which featured reports on upcoming ski trips, the treasury (we are solvent) and membership (we are nearing our constitutional limit of 200!).

After that, it was goodbye time (just as a full moon appeared above the trees!) and a thousand heartfelt thanks to Betty for her incomparable hostessing.

PAST EVENTS

SPRING HIKE by Lu Beale

On June 6, twenty hikers rendezvoused at the base of Sugar Loaf Mountain for a first time PVS assault on the 1282' monadnock just south of Frederick, Md. Leader Bob Marx had scouted the area the week before and was able to supply each hiker with a trail map and guide so detailed not even a PVSer could get lost.

The group split into 7 "long hikers" who opted for a 7-mile circuit and 13 "short hikers" who started further up the trail for a 5-mile circuit. Following the leader's plan, both groups merged about 2 hours later for picnic lunch at White Rocks overlooking Frederick Valley.

After lunch, the long hikers made the side trip over the top of Sugar Loaf mountain itself where they enjoyed stunning views. The short hikers enjoyed a more leisurely pace and welcomed the opportunity for "sightseeing" in the woods. Charlotte Couture and Jan Marx were particularly alert at discovering fresh deer tracks, a blue tailed skink, toads, pileated woodpeckers and red-shouldered hawks. Both groups reveled in the blooming mountain laurel lining the trails.

No PVS trip is complete without an extra curricular adventure, in this case the "break-down" of Jamie Miller's car at the top of the mountain. Some said this was because Bill Anderson was a passenger and is known for having unusual experiences to and from events. Jamie and Bill and half a dozen kibitzers were nonplussed by the problem and finally retired to the bar at nearby Comus Inn to reflect on the matter. At last, amply fortified with good spirits, good Samaritan Jack Peoples drove Jamie and Bill back to Washington and the next day Bill drove Jamie back to Sugar Loaf where the car started on the first try thus bringing another PVS hike to a successful conclusion. Thanks, Bob, for planning and leading a splendid hike.
