THE KNEE

by
Ray McKinley

July doldrums. Enervating heat and oppressive wetness punctuated by lightening and downpours provide only a temporary respite. Clothes stick to your body and humidity joins air, earth, water, and fire, as one of the basic elements of the universe.

But wait! Think refreshing, exhilarating skiing. It's not too late. Jim Slack and Mary Ward skied Tahoe on June 15 (also known as half-past June). Resorts there are still open. Better, join us to ski New Zealand's picturesque Southern Alps in August. Info under Ski Trips.

In June, Bill and Elke Stecher were in town for Bill's 35th reunion. Obviously from elementary school, as Bill has lost weight (the Knee found it) and both look great. They joined us at the June DOGS and brought the attendance, for the first time, to 30. ~~Hope to see you at John Smith and Pat Tangle's next event.~~

Personal note to the Stecher s. Hope your seedling dogwoods are happy in Europe. In German, are they called Hundchenholz?

Ken and Myra Evans have sold their home in Oakton and Myra will now join Ken to live in Atlanta. They hope to join PVS in Banff this winter.

For the first time, PVS has both husband and wife on the Executive Committee. Liz Tria is a first-year member and hubby Serge is our vice president.

A final note on the Luau. Just before the event, Janet Waln asked Chris if he expected any hassles that evening. Chris responded that he expected there would be "some in Janet's evening."

At a recent event, the conversation turned to books. Aina Thomas did not like Betty Beale's new book. She asked Lu Beale if she knew Betty. Lu responded "Betty is my sister-in-law." Whoops.

Aina is once again in Latvia. She will return briefly in July and then head for an Alaskan cruise. As she leaves, Charlotte Eddy's daughter, also Charlotte, arrives from Germany with her baby for a visit.

Matrimonknee. Yup, there's a new Mrs. Knee. On June 17, 3 years to the half-hour from the time we met, Nancy Sexton and I were married. The ceremoknee was performed by a Ukneetarian minister, unexpectedly by candlelight. On what was the hottest day of the year, our electricity died. Nonetheless, we expect to live happilknee ever after. New Zealand will be our honkneemoon.

It's not true that Nancy has changed her name to Nancknee.

Saw the vanity plate "SKIER" the other day and it wasn't a PVSer. I also saw a sad one--"2BZ2SKI."

Boyne Mountain in Michigan has the first six-person high speed lift. It's called a sextet.

At the June meeting at Betty Lawrence's there was considerable discussion of velcro jumping. New member George Hicho won't try it. Says he has enough hang-ups already.

ExPres Sheldon Drews is back in Colorado to try some mountain biking and to get in shape for his second winter in Colorado. Right on.

Charlie Gordon bought the last PVS baseball cap. It's not true he got a special cheap price.

We all really enjoyed the trip "to the country" for the June ExCom meeting hosted by Jim Slack. (Mary Ward was traveling.) Jim must be the only PVSer to have a phone in his wine cellar; he's ukneeque.

There was much discussion of the tremendous amount of food at PVS meetings. John Smith suggested a 200 calorie limit. It was defeated.

There was also discussion of PVS membership cards. Jack Peoples keeps his next to his American Express card, and often uses the PVS card to get 10% discounts. Right on.

PAST EVENTS

SPRING BIKE TRIP by Bob Harmon

On May 23, 17 or 18 bicyclists (the exact number was a matter of some dispute), under the watchful eye of our stern and stalwart leader Myron Marquardt, participated in PVS's annual 26 mile round trip from St Michaels to Tilghman Island. It was a beautiful coolish day for bicycling, though we faced a bit of a breeze as we set out. At the halfway point most of us stopped for a beer just this side of the Tilghman Island drawbridge before returning. However, Sheldon Drews and a few others rashly charged across the bridge, whereupon the bridge went up and stayed up and stayed up and stayed up, and they probably thought they were stranded there till Labor Day. Actually they had to wait only 20 minutes for the bridge to go down again so they could cross back over. When we started back, the wind had perversely reversed directions and strengthened, as it always seems to do on this trip, so we had to ride into quite a stiff breeze all the way back, which was probably quite aerobically beneficial. On reaching St Michaels, we went to the Town Dock Restaurant for an excellent meal. All in all, it was an enjoyable albeit uneventful outing, with nothing more exciting or calamitous happening than Sally Finan's flat tire, which hardly counts (except to Sally). Thanks to Myron for organizing the trip and riding herd on the gang.

JUNE MEETING by Lu Beale

Once again Betty Lawrence hosted the June Meeting at her beautiful Great Falls home. Sixty five PVSers gathered to enjoy Betty's renowned hospitality and, incidentally, conduct a little club business. (Surely no other club can boast such consistent attendance figures as PVS!)

Early arrivals were greeted by Jack Peoples ascending from the swimming pool which he claimed to have been cleaning. Inviting as the pool was, Jack was the only one to venture in. The June evening was so pleasantly cool, other guests were content to mill around the verandas greeting friends and talking ski-talk.

Betty's lovely daughter, Beth, came early to help prepare and serve large platters of lasagna, ham sandwiches and spinach mold which, attacked by early arrivals, quickly emptied. (C'mon, folks! Let's leave a little something for late arrivals!)

The business meeting, conducted under the stars by president Mary Jane McCarthy, featured mouth-watering descriptions of upcoming ski trips by Jack Peoples, Dina Taylor and Dick Comerford and equally inviting descriptions of upcoming club events by program chairman Ray McKinley.

The evening ended, as it had begun, with hugs and kisses and heartfelt thanks to indefatigable hostess, Betty Lawrence.

MID-WEEK ADVENTURES

In early June, Charles Huggins planned, scouted and led a contingent of PVSers on a 6-7 mile hike in Montgomery County's little used Black Hills Regional Park. The group included Shirley Rettig and Nat Seeman (the only ones to have completed the previous weekend's canceled hike in White Oak Canyon), and Jan Marx and Mary Riley, each testing recently mended broken bones.

What none of the hikers had planned on was the 95° temperature which somewhat dampened our enthusiasm- with sweat. Instead of the planned grilled lunch Charles had arranged, sandwiches and cold drinks were consumed at sheltered picnic tables while the group, to cool off, talked ski-talk, and concluded that summer is not an ideal time for local hiking.

When cool weather returns, we hope super-planner Charles resumes the mid-week hikes and, when snow flies again, the mid-week ski days.

COOK'S CORNER

by
Nancy Garrett

WHAT A LUAU!!! As usual the food was fantastic, the ambience terrific, the socializing fun and the host and hostess dressed in full island regalia. Selections from the evening are presented for your cooking and eating enjoyment.

COCONUT CURRY SHRIMP DIP

Mix well and chill for several hours:

- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 teaspoon curry powder
- 1/2 cup finely chopped coconut
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 finely chopped green onions
- 1/4 cup small cooked shrimp
- Dash tabasco
- Dash black pepper

Serve with crackers or vegetables. Janet doubled the recipe to serve 36 people and used 1 (4 1/4 oz) can Chicken of the Sea Shrimp.

TERIYAKI CHICKEN, HAWAIIAN STYLE

-6 boneless chicken breasts

Combine all marinade ingredients:

- 1 cup soy sauce
- 1 cup pineapple juice
- 1 Tablespoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon ginger (dry or fresh)
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 1/2 cup white wine
- 2 Tablespoons salad oil

Pour just enough over chicken breasts to cover completely. Reserve rest in separate container in fridge. Marinate 24-48 hours. Grill over hot coals and place in deep pan.

Heat reserved marinade in pan to boil.

Add 1 cup crushed pineapple. Mix:

- 2 Tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/2 cup water

Add to liquid stirring while it thickens.

Pour liquid over chicken in pan. Cook in 350° oven for 30 minutes. Serves 8. (Janet prepared 6 times the recipe.)

SUMI SALAD

Toast and set aside:

- 2 Tablespoons oil
- 1/4 cup sliced almonds
- 1/4 cup sesame seeds

Mix together:

- 8 green onions, finely sliced
- 1 head cabbage, finely grated
- 2 (3oz) packages Ramen noodles, uncooked

Dressing:

- 1/4 cup sugar
- 6 Tablespoons rice vinegar
- 3/4 cup oil
- 3 Tablespoons sesame oil
- 1 teaspoon salt

Toss all ingredients and chill several hours (at least 6 hours). Serves 10-12.

For a different but similar salad, add the seasoning packet from the noodles to the dressing. Hold the noodles until just before serving and crush over the top of the cabbage mixture.

HUKILAU SALAD

(Creamy coconut gelatin salad. Hukilau means "party" in Hawaiian.)

In small pan, sprinkle:

- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 1 1/2 cups water

Let gelatin set until softened. Stir over low heat until gelatin dissolves. Set aside.

In blender bowl, blend and pour into bowl:

- 1 (24 oz.) carton cottage cheese
- Add and mix well:
- 1 can sweetened condensed milk
- 1 (8 oz.) package cream cheese
- 1 cup coconut
- 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
- Reserved gelatin mixture from above

Refrigerate until slightly thickened, about 10 minutes. Stir and put in oiled mold or oiled serving dish.

Garnish with colored cake sprinkles for a festive look. Serves 12-18. Janet doubled for Luau.

Stay tuned next month for Janet's Hawaiian Shortbread Cookies and Baked Pineapple from the kitchen of Genee Boykin.
